Dear Dick,

Here is the picture I mentioned this a.m. I kind of thought you'd want a copy, so when I ordered one for me a month ago, I also ordered one for you.

Note it is neither an exhibit nor a "document". It was identified entirely by accident by Mike Simmons. He has the original picture from the Washington Post of 11/25 in a personal file of clippings. The original of this is a rather larger than average enlargement they found and wondered about.

Also enclosed is what I take to be an applicable report.

If I hear anything from Mrs. L. or from Penn about her, I'll let you know. Pretty soon the phone bill should give me her location, or her employer.

Sincerely,
